

8th East Asia Airports Alliance Annual Meeting
17-18 September 2009, Incheon Hyatt Regency, Incheon, Korea

“EAAA Green Airports, Engines for Green Growth”

Attachment 3. – Speakers Information

- Special Guest Speech:
Angela Gittens, Director General, Airports Council International (ACI)

- Topic:
Green Airport for Sustainable Growth

- Introduction:
Ms. Gittens began her current position as Director General of ACI World in 2008. Prior to joining ACI, she served as Vice-President, Airport Business Services for HNTB Corporation, where she led the firm’s practice in airport business and strategic planning. She has held top executive positions at Miami International Airport, Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport, and San Francisco International Airport. Ms. Gittens has also served on many aviation industry boards and committees including FAA and NASA advisory committees.

8th East Asia Airports Alliance Annual Meeting
17-18 September 2009, Incheon Hyatt Regency, Incheon, Korea

“EAAA Green Airports, Engines for Green Growth”

□ Moderator : Peter Harbison, Executive Chairman, Centre for Asia Pacific Aviation

□ Topic:

Aviation and Climate Change: A problem postponed, but growing ominously

□ Introduction:

Mr. Harbison founded the Centre for Asia Pacific Aviation which was in 1990. His career in aviation comprises more than 35 years, including 10 years working for IATA. He is a well-known aviation consultant and commentator. Peter is President of the Australian Aviation Council, and former Chairman of IATA's World Aviation Regulation Monitoring Group.

8th East Asia Airports Alliance Annual Meeting
17-18 September 2009, Incheon Hyatt Regency, Incheon, Korea

“EAAA Green Airports, Engines for Green Growth”

□ Speaker:

Chris Arman, Deputy Commissioner, Department of Aviation,
City of Chicago

□ Topic:

Green Airports, Engines for Green Growth

□ Introduction:

Mr. Arman started his career at O’Hare Airport in 1991 as the Director of Cargo Facilities. Mr. Arman took his current position of Deputy Commissioner of the O’Hare Modernization Program in early 2002. He is primarily responsible for Land Acquisition, Environmental Impact Study, Airport Layout Plan and the Master Plan of the O’Hare Modernization Program.

8th East Asia Airports Alliance Annual Meeting
17-18 September 2009, Incheon Hyatt Regency, Incheon, Korea

“EAAA Green Airports, Engines for Green Growth”

□ Speaker:

Kati Ihamaki, Finnair Vice President Sustainable Development

□ Topic:

Environmental Issues in the air

□ Introduction:

Joining Finnair in 1992, Ms. Ihamaki has previously acted as Alliance Director for was appointed by Finnair as Vice President of Sustainable Development on Feb 2008. Her responsibilities include ensuring that environmental goals in Group business activities of Finnair, and also coordinating environmental strategy and emission trade projects.

8th East Asia Airports Alliance Annual Meeting
17-18 September 2009, Incheon Hyatt Regency, Incheon, Korea

“EAAA Green Airports, Engines for Green Growth”

□ Speaker:

Byung Jong Kim, Professor of Transportation,
Korea Aerospace University

□ Topic:

ICN Green Development

□ Introduction:

Professor Kim holds a M.S. and a Ph.D in Civil Engineering (Transportation) from Virginia Tech. He has held various academic positions, and is the present Dean for the Planning and International Affairs of the Korea Aerospace University after being appointed to the position in 2008. Prof. Kim's fields of specialization include the following: transportation systems analysis and transportation planning; planning, design and operation of airports; and optimization models in transportations and logistics.